

Email Submission: Brenda White

Please just leave it all alone and let nature take care of itself. You might all think it's wonderful just because you can do it and can think of the "advantages" but who is to say it won't be corrupted some time down the track? Leave well enough alone.

Regards, Brenda White