

Email Submission: Fernando Longo

My Will is that we do not allow the deregulation of genetic modification techniques.

I do not accept the safety of Genetically Modified foods and thus do not accept genetic modification techniques.

Reviews commissioned by the Austrian and Norwegian governments concluded that not enough is known about the risks posed by these new GM techniques. They recommended that products derived from them require comprehensive case-by-case risk assessments.